

Please do not allow Low Power transmissions to take away my FM translator station. It is the only way I can listen to my only radio station-KLOVE. This station serves my community by providing christian music and resources. Its pastors have saved many lives and souls, and it's music touches my heart and many others every day. I am a faithful listener and contributor to KLOVE. Our city needs to continue to receive this positive and encouraging station. Thank you.